

Confidential Instructor Evaluation

Instructor's name: _____

Telephone: _____

_____ is being considered for admission at the Queens Paideia School, an independent school that stresses both individualized instruction and participation in mixed-age group activities. Some of our primary concerns for an applicant are his/her ability to work independently and how he/she functions in a small-group setting. We appreciate your taking the time to complete this evaluation.

In both of sets of prompts, please check off the answer that best describes the student.

Task	Not yet	Sometimes	Most of the time	Always
Can hold and use a pencil
Can cut with scissors
Uses a spoon and fork properly
Can manage bathroom needs without assistance
Can dress him- or herself (jacket, shoes, socks, buttons, zippers)
Can share with others
Takes turns with others

Social Skills	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor	Comment
peer relationships
ability to function in a group
consideration for others
emotional maturity
sense of humor
sense of responsibility
self-control
relationship with adults

How long have you know the student, and in what context?

In what areas does this student show particular strength?

In what areas has this student needed special support or help?

Are there any concerns about attendance or promptness?

Please describe the student's parents' involvement and cooperation:

Is there any other information about this student or the family that would be helpful to know?

Place of instruction:

Subject you teach:

Signature

Date

Please mail this form to:
Queens Paideia School
44-02 23rd St., Ste. 214
Long Island City, NY 11101